Self and others

LATEST SUBMISSION GRADE

100%

1.	Ultimate causation refers to:	1 / 1 point
	a. what a creature wants or desires
	b. the reason something has evolved
	c. the immediate factors underlying a behavior
	✓ Correct
2.	True or false: Paul Ekman argues that basic emotion expressions are universal across cultures:	1 / 1 point
	a. true
	b. faise
	✓ Correct
3.	Harlow's studies of baby monkeys with artificial mothers that were made out of either wire or cloth provide support for	1 / 1 point
	a. Bowlby's innate theory of attachment
	b. Skinner's cupboard theory of attachment
	c. Ekman's theory of reciprocal altruism
	d. Triver's theory of reciprocal altruism
	✓ Correct

4. Suppose we are playing the Prisoner's Dilemma game over multiple trials, and I am using the Tit-for-Tat strategy. After playing for a while you defect and I cooperate. What do I do on the https://www.coursera.org/learn/introduction-psychology/exam/urEpm/self-and-others/attempt?redirectToCover=true

1 / 1 point

	next move?
	a. defect
	O b. cooperate
	c. behave randomly
	✓ Correct
5.	John and Sarah are playing a game in which John is given $10 and can offer Sarah part of his $10. If Sarah accepts his offer, they both keep the money. If she rejects his offer, they both get nothing. The game is known as the:	1 / 1 point
	a. Prisoner's dilemma
	b. Ultimatum game
	C. Dictator Game
	d. Tit-for-Tat game
	✓ Correct
6.	In "cultures of honor," you'll most likely find:	1 / 1 point
	a. men show high overall levels of violence
	b. resources that are easily protected
	c. opposition to capital punishment
	d. strong defense of one's reputation
	✓ Correct
7.	In an episode of the Simpson's, Homer Simpson had to wear a pink shirt to work while everyone else wore white shirts. He wearing the pink shirt because a phenomenon studied by social psychologists called	1 / 1 point
	a. liked, the spotlight effect

	b. disliked, the spotlight effect
	c. liked, attentional focus
	d. dislike, attentional focus
	✓ Correct
8.	Melissa and Mike had to wait in line for over an hour to get into an exclusive restaurant. Despite being served a mediocre meal, they glowingly praised the restaurant to their friends. This behavior was probably a result of:	1 / 1 point
	a. the spotlight effect
	b. the norm of reciprocity
	c. perceptual confirmation
	d. cognitive dissonance
	✓ Correct
9.	Brittany says, "I'm majoring in finance because my parents expect me to join the family business when I graduate, but my friend Abigail is majoring in finance because she's materialistic." Brittany's statement illustrates:	1 / 1 point
	a. the self-fulfilling prophecy
	b. the fundamental attribution error
	c. cognitive dissonance
	d. unconscious stereotyping
	✓ Correct
10.	A teacher is told that a student is exceptionally bright. Because of the Pygmalion effect, the student is more likely to:	1 / 1 point
	a. be bullied by other students
	b. perform poorly in school

	c. succeed in school
	d. cause trouble in class
	✓ Correct
11.	The mere exposure effect refers to:	1 / 1 point
	a. the tendency to become bored after repeated exposure to something b . the tendency to like something more after repeated exposure
	c. the tendency to be attracted to someone who exposes more of their skin
	d. the ability to better remember faces after repeated exposure
	✓ Correct
12.	Which of the following statements about stereotypes is false:	1 / 1 point
	a. stereotypes can be a useful way of categorizing groups
	b. stereotyped individuals often behave in ways that confirm the stereotype
	c. stereotypes can sometimes be positive and accurate
	d. stereotypes are necessarily based on personal experience with individuals, not on sour movies	rces such as television and
	✓ Correct	